

Matthew Loscalzo, LCSW

Objectives:

1. Participants will know how to screen for biopsychosocial problems endemic to older adults with cancer
2. Participants will understand the link between noxious physical symptoms and negative psychosocial impact
3. Participants will be aware of the barriers and opportunities related to new distress screening standards